Days Gone By

News Tribune June 29, 1966

- Mayor George D. Johnson and three members of the Central Hillside Committee toured the Central Hillside neighborhood yesterday, viewing buildings that need to be renovated or demolished. Much of the rehabilitation work will be paid for with federal urban renewal money.
- A move to return the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers District headquarters to Duluth was begun yesterday by the Seaway Port Authority of Duluth. The district office was in Duluth until 1950, when it was transferred to Milwaukee.

News Tribune June 29, 1986

- Although the Duluth Reunion Festival began last week, local hotel managers don't expect a large influx of people until after July 4. The busiest dates for the hotels are July 10-12, when Central High will hold its class parties.
- Thumbprint Productions, a new Duluth company, is producing and marketing an audiocassette that takes listeners on a circuitous tour of the city. Called "Duluth's A Tour," the tape and a map sell for $14.95.
