

| Lake Superior Water LevelBeginning of September 2021 |                      |
|---|----------------------|
| Record High (1950)  | 183.86 m (603.22 ft) |
| Current   | 183.54 m (602.17 ft) |
| Average (1918-2020)   | 183.55 m (602.20 ft) |

| Forecast Outlook  |
|---|
| Weather and water supply conditions were drier than average in the Lake Superior basin and wetter than average in the Lake Michigan-Huron basin in August. Lake Superior and Lake Michigan-Huron water levels typically decline in September. |

International
Lake Superior Board of Control

| St. Marys Rapids Flowand Compensating Works Gate Setting |   |
|--|---|
| August   | 89 m <sup>3</sup> /s (3,100 cfs)Equivalent to approximatelyone-half gate fully open |
| September  | 89 m <sup>3</sup> /s (3,100 cfs)Equivalent to approximatelyone-half gate fully open |

| Lake Michigan-Huron Water LevelBeginning of September 2021 |                      |
|---|----------------------|
| Record High (2020)  | 177.40 m (582.02 ft) |
| Current   | 177.00 m (580.71 ft) |
| Average (1918-2020)   | 176.55 m (579.23 ft) |

| Lake Superior Total OutflowSeptember 2021 |                                       |
|--|---------------------------------------|
| Record High (1950)                                   | 3,570 m <sup>3</sup> /s (126,100 cfs) |
| Current  | 2,110 m <sup>3</sup> /s (74,500 cfs)  |
| Plan 2012  | 2,110 m <sup>3</sup> /s (74,500 cfs)  |
| Average (1900-2020)                                  | 2,340 m <sup>3</sup> /s (82,600 cfs)  |